Ms. Camille Young, of Cornerstone, added that the Governor's office did appreciate the efforts made by Cornerstone to foster and improve the relationship between JMAA and the Governor's office, in keeping them aware of what is happening at JAN.

Commissioner LTC(R) Wright asked about Cornerstone's communication with Continental Tires. Mr. Flaggs said that there was a meeting attended by Mr. Newman, during which Continental discussed with Staff ways in which the airport can assist Continental with its efforts.

Mr. Newman added that the meeting was very productive in that it created a relationship between JMAA and Continental Tires. Further, during the meeting, the attendees discussed ways they can assist Continental with recruiting employees, employing local persons, and assisting with Continental with its operation.

Next, Commissioner Pastor Henley asked how long members of the Cornerstone team have been lobbying in the Mississippi Legislature collectively. Vice-Chairman Bernard then read aloud Article II, Section 2, of the JMAA Bylaws. Afterward, Chairman Harris requested that a Board Member to make a motion for the Board to direct JMAA Staff to enter into a contract with The Daniels Group, LLC as the Mississippi Legislative Consultant for JMAA.

In that regard, Commissioner Pastor Henley said that the Daniels Group fails under the “direct experience” and “qualifications” criteria adopted by the Board to evaluate persons/entities seeking professional services contracts.
